ABSOLUTE JAP BAN DEMANDED AT LABOR MEET

Exclusion by Congress of Both Male and Female, Including All Classes, Requested In Resolution Submitted to Federation Convention at Denver

Most Drastic Action Ever Considered by the Organization Is to be Voted On—Has Backing of Strong Pacific Coast Bodies

DENVER, Colo.—(By Associated Press)—Demand that congress take action to protect the nation's interest against the growing menace of "Japanese immigration and colonization," is made in a resolution submitted to the annual convention of the American Federation of Labor.

The declaration, submitted by M. M. McGuire, of the San Francisco labor council, has the approval of the Japanese Exclusion League of Washington, various patriotic, civic and fraternal organizations on the Pacific coast.

Labor leaders declare that the resolution is the most drastic measure on the Japanese question ever considered by organized labor. It calls for

"Absolute exclusion in future of all Japanese immigration, not only male but female, and not only laborers, skilled and unskilled, but farmers and men of small trades and professions, as recommended by Theodore Roosevelt. Permission for temporary residence only for tourists, students, artists, commercial men teachers and others.

"Such exclusion to be enforced by United States officials under United States laws and regulations as done with immigration admitted or excluded from all other countries and not as at present, under an arrangement whereby control and regulation is surrendered by us to Japan."

Three cities have already begun campaigns to get the 1922 convention of the federation. They are Fort Worth, Texas, Cincinnati, Ohio and Birmingham, Ala.

PACKER CONTROL FIGHT GOES ON

Senate Vote, Defeating Bill, May be Reconsidered

WASHINGTON — (By Associated Press) — The confusion into which the senate packer regulation forces were thrown late yesterday by the defeat of their own bill and the subsequent introduction of a new measure by Senator Sterling, Republican, South Dakota, before a vote could be taken on the house measure, had been smoothed out when the senate convened today to resume consideration of the subject.

At a conference last night of those senators favoring what is regarded as the more drastic regulation proposed in the bill reported by the senate agriculture committee, it was decided the first movement would be to attempt to secure reconsideration of the vote by which the measure was defeated by the narrow margin of 27 to 41. Failing in this, it was decided to support the new Sterling bill, which prescribes much the same regulation as the legislation proposed by the agriculture committee except that it would place the administration in the federal trade commission instead of in a livestock commissioner as proposed in the latter.

Leaders of the regulation forces claimed that several senators favoring the committee bill who were unable to attend the session yesterday would be on hand today and their votes would swing the scale in their favor. Should the committee bill and the Sterling bill both fail of adoption today, it was expected that a vote would be reached on the house measure which is regarded as less drastic than the senate bill.

CHARGES HUSBAND RAN CAR OVER HER FOOT

CHICAGO.—Something new in way of carnalities was offered by Mrs. Louise L. Allen in bringing suit for divorce from Ray Allen, a steamship captain.

Mrs. Allen charged her husband had run his automobile over her foot in a "fit of cruelty." The automobile was a Ford and the incident happened in Des Moines, she said.

Last Christmas, Mrs. Allen said, her husband gave her a series of plays for Christmas presents in return for gifts she had given him.

She won a decree.

ACCUSED WOMAN EMOTIONLESS

Idaho Widow Calmly Faces Charge of Killing Mate

PRELIMINARY HEARING HELD

Insurance Money Believed Motive for Murder

TWIN FALLS, Idaho — (By Associated Press) — Mrs. Lida Southard, charged with murdering her fourth husband, Edward F. Meyer, sat apparently emotionless throughout the day at a preliminary hearing before Probate Judge Duval.

Her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Truesblood, were constantly at her side. She seemed oblivious to the gaze of one hundred or more spectators, mostly women, who had crowded into the court.

No testimony in behalf of Mrs. Southard will be introduced at the examination, counsel for the defense announced.

Witnesses today included Dr. J. F. Coughlin, who attended Meyer in his fatal illness; Dr. Hal Bieler, who made the post-mortem examinations of the body of Meyer; Ben H. Busmann, attorney, who identified a copy of Meyer's will, drawn soon after his marriage to Mrs. Southard and naming her as sole legatee, and C. D. Thomas, and his son, Rex Thomas, who testified as to Meyer obtaining life insurance for ten thousand dollars and of his widow's repeated efforts to collect on the policy.

Dr. Coughlin testified that Meyer had suffered a relapse almost immediately after a special nurse had been discharged as a matter of economy, and Mrs. Southard was left alone in care of the patient. The physician said that poison administered to Meyer prior to removal to the hospital could not have had fatal results. Dr. Bieler, in reply to a question, testified that a blood examination, made prior to Meyer's death indicated the presence of typhoid bacilli.

COLAVITO LINKED WITH BABY DEATH

Accused Woman in Kaber Case Gave "Medicine" to Child

CLEVELAND — (By Associated Press) — County Prosecutor Edward C. Stanton continued today his investigation of alleged activities of Mrs. Emma Colavito, under indictment for first degree murder in the death of Daniel F. Kaber, in dispensing "medicine" similar to that which she is alleged to have administered to Mrs. Eva Catherine Kaber, widow of the dead man, and which Mrs. Kaber is said to have administered to her husband to "cure" him of alleged bad habits.

A woman, whose name Prosecutor Stanton refused to divulge, late last night identified Mrs. Colavito as the woman who dispensed "medicine" to her six-year-old sister four years ago, following which the child died. Mrs. Colavito admitted giving the child the "medicine," the prosecutor said, but denied that it caused her death. The woman told Prosecutor Stanton, she said, that the child suffered an attack of convulsions upon taking the first dose, and died within a week.

The city chemist, upon completion of the final analysis of "medicine" Mrs. Colavito is alleged to have said Pasquale Julion to "cure" his brother, declared that it contained poison.

Court's Decision Reveals Faulty Constitution, Burke Says

REORGANIZATION ACT HOLDS

Davis Given Free Hand to Name Cabinet

COLUMBUS — (By Associated Press) — Governor Davis was given a free hand to proceed with naming the heads of the eight new state departments created by the reorganization bill, by the action of the state supreme court late yesterday, sustaining the emergency clause by a vote of four to three. The law will become operative July 1, with the advent of the new fiscal year. The court's action prevents a referendum.

ANNOUNCEMENT of heads of the new departments is expected to be made by Governor Davis immediately. The persons most prominently mentioned in this connection are: Finance—Floyd E. Waite, Cleveland, the governor's private secretary.

Industrial relations—Percy Letlow, of Columbiana, statician of the United Mine Workers of America.

Commerce—W. H. Phipps, attorney of Paulding-co.

Health or welfare—Dr. H. H. Snively, Columbus, sanitary officer overseas, during the world war.

Highways—Leon C. Herrick, Norwalk, present highway commissioner.

Agriculture—L. J. Taber, Barnesville, master of the Ohio State Grange.

Education—Vernon M. Riegel, Marion, present superintendent of public instruction. Mr. Riegel is a Democrat, his position being constitutional, and not subject to legislative change.

AMENDMENT SOUGHT State Senator J. F. Burke, Elyria, Republican, who fought the emergency clause in the senate and who, with W. W. Durbin, chairman of the Democratic state executive committee, instituted the court proceedings to have the emergency clause knocked out, declared the decision "virtually means that there is nothing to the referendum in the constitution; providing two-thirds of the house or legislature agree that they do not want the people to vote on the matter."

He asserted that he favored a new amendment to the constitution that will guarantee the people their reserved rights, and that if he again introduces a resolution calling for submission of such an amendment.

DIVISION OF JUDGES The four judges concurring in the decision, were Jones, Mathias, Hough and Robinson. Chief Justice Marshall, Wamamaker and Johnson dissented. All are Republicans.

Wamamaker and Johnson, who announced they are preparing dissenting opinions in the case, said their two colleagues in sustaining the validity of the emergency clause. They held that an emergency law is not even reviewable by the courts on the question of its being an emergency, but as the majority of the court was against them on this contention, the contention fell.

The majority holds in brief that the reasons cited by the legislature for declaring the act an emergency must be presumed to be true in the light of no evidence to the contrary.

WANT TO QUIT U. S.

Foreigners, Jobless, Seek Permission to Return Home

PITTSBURGH, Pa. — (By Associated Press) — Scores of foreigners, recently arrived in this country, are applying to the United States immigration authorities here for deportation to their home countries.

They say they have been unable to find employment, and unless they are sent home they will become charges upon the counties in western Pennsylvania where they reside.

W. W. Sibray, immigration inspector in charge of the Pittsburgh district, said today that many of these men are from Great Britain, good workmen who came here when the mills were in full operation and had no difficulty in obtaining employment. Since the depression set in they have been out of work. He said that under the law he was unable to aid them in any way.

LONDON SIGNAL WIRES CUT BY SINN FEINERS

LONDON.—(By the Associated Press.)—A campaign of widespread cutting of railway and signal wires and burning of signal cabins around London, attended by violence against signal men, was carried out during last night by men who the police declared were Sinn Feiners and members of the Irish Self-Determination League. Nine men were arrested. The official police statement says:

"All the men arrested give local addresses. They are young Irishmen between 17 and 22. It has been known for some time that the heads of the Irish Self-Determination League in London have been in correspondence with the so-called Irish Republican army which has been directing the murders and outrages in Ireland."

CORK MAYOR ENDS MYSTERY TRIP

O'Callaghan Arrives Overseas From United States

GOES 'UNDERGROUND ROUTE'

Story of His Movements Told in Chicago

(BY CARL VICTOR LITTLE) CHICAGO.—(By United Press) —David O'Callaghan, Britain's phantom rebel, arrived overseas today.

O'Callaghan, lord mayor of Cork, who fled from the United States after he had been refused political asylum here, made the trip without a passport and via the "underground" route of the Irish.

The announcement of the safe arrival of the leader of the Irish republican movement, was made exclusively to the United Press at the headquarters of the Irish mission here.

STUMPED COUNTRY O'Callaghan arrived in the United States several months ago as a stow-away. The order that he had to leave the country was issued after a bitter fight of Irish sympathizers to allow him to stay.

They said he should be allowed to stay here because he was a political enemy of Great Britain and subject to sentence of death if caught.

During his stay here, the 29-year-old Irish rebel, stamped the country for the Association for the Recognition of the Irish Republic.

Whether O'Callaghan arrived in Ireland or on the continent was not divulged. His exact movements are guarded with the utmost secrecy because of the value placed on him by Irish republicans as a leader.

Close advisers today said O'Callaghan left the United States with the realization that he was a doomed man. He left over the protests of many close friends, who pointed out he could hide in the United States for months.

"I am needed over there," his friends quoted him as saying. "I am not content to do the talking in the United States and let others do the fighting back home."

1,000 ROTARIANS IN PARADE

Great Street Pageant Closes Convention at Edinburg

EDINBURG, Scotland.—(By United Press) —The annual peace convention here, according to American delegates preparing to leave Edinburg today.

The "clubs" memorize their governments for the calling of an international disarmament congress.

The closing speeches of the convention dwell on the claim that the convention has advanced the cause of peace by giving a practical demonstration of the strength of friendship.

The closing spectacle of the convention was the great parade yesterday in which more than a thousand Rotarians marched down ancient Scottish streets under a forest of American and British flags.

There were princesses and princesses, mythological characters and symbolic floats. Robert Cameron, of Billings, Mont., treated wide-eyed Scottish children to the sight of a real cowboy, complete to the last spangle and the noiches on a revolver.

WOMAN'S BODY FOUND. WARREN, O.—The body of Mrs. Emma Bailey, a p. r. e. s. s. was found today by police with the head nearly severed from the body. G. P. Brown, a negro, who was in the house when the police entered after screams were heard, escaped, although several shots were fired at him.

WOULD YOU THINK SHE IS AMERICAN?

Miss Sarah Jane Baxter

Her name should be Carmencita, Maria, Bonita, Esabella or some other such exotic sounding one, but in reality it is Miss Sarah Jane Baxter and her home is in Chicago, where she is popular in society. This photograph, however, which shows her in a beautiful old Spanish mantilla, was taken in Balboa, Panama canal zone, where she has been visiting her sister, Mrs. Samuel Grier. She could fool even the Spanish dons.

LIFE OF PRIEST THREATENED

Promised "Pill" if He Testified Against Wanda Urbaytis

TOLEDO.—(By Associated Press) —Threats were made against the Rev. Father Anthony Gorek, pastor of a Polish parish at New Chicago, Ind., while he was held in county jail with more than a score other suspects, in the million dollar postoffice robbery here last February.

Following up an admission by Father Gorek to defense counsel that he had been promised something, Prosecutor Bollin in redirect examination brought out the statement that other defendants had promised him a "pill" if he went on the stand and testified against Wanda Urbaytis, one of the 15 defendants now on trial.

STORY FINISHED The Rev. Gorek finished the story of his life as a parish priest late yesterday after occupying the stand for one whole day and two hours of another.

He spent the entire day yesterday facing questions by attorneys for the defense about the girl's alleged connection with the conspiracy of which the priest had testified and how she had placed more than eighty thousand dollars of alleged stolen bonds in his care.

NO LONGER PASTOR He declared he took the package from the woman as from a friend and did not know the contents until some days later when he read of the girl's alleged connection with the postoffice robbery, opened the package, found it contained Liberty bonds of one thousand dollar denomination, cashed one, sent one to his brother in Germany and gave three others to two parishioners to cash for him. The money was used for relief of starving parishioners and equipment of his church.

He testified he was no longer pastor of the church, having resigned his charge when arrested in connection with the postoffice conspiracy, May 12.

Three defendants, John Paulek, Stanley Bartnikowski and Albert Meryn were withdrawn from the trial yesterday. No explanation of their withdrawal was made. They were taken back to county jail to await final disposition of their cases.

SILENT ON HOLT'S DEMANDS

President Awaiting Peace Settlement, Associates Say

STATUS YET INDEFINITE

No Negotiations in Immediate Future Indicated

WASHINGTON.—(By Associated Press) — Hamilton Holt's letter calling on President Harding to disclose his plans for an association of nations to replace the league, has failed to draw any reply from the administration and indications are that none will be made, at least for the present.

Mr. Holt headed the pro-league Republicans during the campaign. It was said at the White House today that his open letter, made public in New York yesterday, had not yet been received. Further than that officials refused to comment.

SETTLEMENT AWAITED The impression was permitted to go out, however, that if President Harding replies to the letter he will not enter into any detailed discussion and that so far as the administration is concerned, the association plan must remain for the present in an indefinite status, as the administration prefers first a definite settlement of peace and a restoration of stable conditions in Europe.

Some persons in the confidence of the administration said today that progress of a preliminary character on plans for the proposed association had been made and that at least one draft of a plan had been made by an eminent authority on international law at the request of President Harding. The president, these people say, has not approached the point of giving anything final, and the indications are against any international negotiations on the subject in the immediate future.

One draft of an association plan prepared at the president's request, is understood to be constructed about the principle of a world court and an international conference for the discussion of questions likely to lead to war. This was the principle advocated by Mr. Harding during his campaign. There are no outward indications that he has changed his position.

IDEAS KEPT SECRET Both White House and state department officials continue to decline to reveal what specific steps the president has in mind to carry out such a policy. Altho the president's first address to congress was interpreted by some as favoring ratification of the Versailles treaty with broad reservations, there is as yet no indication that he is preparing to re-submit the treaty to the senate.

On the contrary, the indications are that Harding is developing his international policy step by step and does not care, for the present, to commit himself beyond the first phase of the process, which the administration feels is the passage of a peace resolution by congress.

HUNT THEFT CLUES

U. S. Agents Work on $10,000 Robbery at Cincinnati

CINCINNATI.—(By Associated Press) —United States secret service men and city detectives joined forces today in their search for a clue to the thief who entered the wholesale stamp booth in the main lobby of the Cincinnati postoffice yesterday and walked out with cash and stamps valued at between eight thousand and ten thousand dollars. The belief is expressed that the thief worked alone, altho it is stated by the detectives he may have had an accomplice to watch the postoffice guard.

The report of the postoffice inspectors, who checked up the contents of the "cage" show that there was "sixty-five thousand dollars in stamps, cash and certificates when Clerk John R. Vickery left for lunch yesterday.

The thief overlooked several thousand dollars in the dollar war savings stamps and nearly ten thousand dollars in hundred dollar treasury savings certificates.

FASHION LEADERS LEAVE SENATE

Sons Have No One to Dictate
Summer Clothes

QUEER CUSTOMS OF DRESS

Lewis' Pink Shirts and Thomas'
Toupee Have Disappeared

(BY DAVID M. CHURCH)
WASHINGTON — (International News Service) — The august and dignified United States Senate is in a sartorial quandary.

The Senate had no official notification that Summer is here, and there is doubt as to just when the Senate
may adorn itself
with summer garments.

This perplexing situation comes about thru the failure of the voters of Colorado to return one Charles S.
Thomas to the Senate.

For several years the former Senator Thomas has been the official harbinger of Summer for the Senate—or perhaps this toupee has been the harbinger.

Thomas was a fair judge of weather, and when he was finally convinced that Summer had arrived for a stay he entered the Senate chamber minus his iron-gray toupee, and with his pink dome shining unblushingly. The dome continued to shine until cold weather came, and then the toupee came out of the moth balls and covered the dome again.

The occasion for the stowing away of the Thomas toupee was always celebrated in the Senate.
Thomas frequently made a speech on warm weather and toupees, and he was always the subject of congratulations from his colleagues.

After the toupee had disappeared members of the Senate felt safe to sally forth in flannels, Palm Beach suits and minus their "galluses."

With the absence of the Thomas toupee and the approach of warm weather the Senate now faces the serious question of determining for itself when Summer clothes shall come out.

This Summer finds a Senate greatly changed from that of the last heated season, and new Summer styles are predicted. Henry Cabot Lodge will, as usual, observe the arrival of summer by donning a starched white vest, and on real hot days he will even go as far as to wear light trousers. Senator Frank Brandegee, of Connecticut, will celebrate the warmest days by trotting out his two famous scarfs—one of most violent green and the other of burnt orange that speaks for itself.

Thomas Hefflin, of Alabama, will pay his tribute to "Old Sol" with a stiffly starched white duck suit and a boiled shirt that is equally stiffly starched. Senator Jim Watson, of Indiana, will wear his famous prison-striped flannel trousers, and his colleague, Harry New, will discard his black felt sombrero for one of Panamanian straw weave that is equally broad.

These sartorial effects are assured.

But what about the new Senators? How are they going to greet summer? They have no fashion leader in the Senate now and haven't had since Jim Ham-Lewis took his gray silk sash, his salmon pink silk shirt and his silk suits back to Illinois.

Even the champion of the "gallus" and no vest—Asie Gronna, of North Dakota—has gone.
Surely the troubles of the Senate are many.

As for the House, "Uncle Joe" answers the question there. In May he begins dispensing with a buttoned "wescoat," button by button.
When the veteran legislator from Illinois finally casts his vest into the discard and appears in a boiled shirt, "galluses," and an alpaca coat over his arm, then the House knows it is time to put on Summer clothes.

"BLUEBEARD" FACES TRIAL FOR SLAYING NINE WIVES

NEW SAFETY HEAD IS NOT NAMED

Appointment May Be Delayed,
Burkhardt Says

Altho he is considering several applicants for the position of Director of Public Safety to fill the vacancy created by the resignation of Fred H.
Fisher, Mayor Burkhardt declared Friday morning that it is probable the appointment will not be made before the first of the coming week.
Just who the mayor is considering,
he would not say.

He expressed the belief that he will have considerable trouble in filling the vacancy with a competent man at the salary allowed.

Burkhardt, Friday, said Fisher's resignation came as no surprise to him, as the safety director more than two months ago informed him that he would sever his connection with the safety department in the near future.

Pending the appointment of a successor, Fisher is serving in the capacity of safety director.

Fisher, Friday, declared it would have been folly for him to recommend the reinstatement of former police sergeants Goebel and Elberle, as the mayor has authority to recall the men in event the recommendation is made.

Recent reports state that Andrew Carnegie established 2,811 libraries.

where the women are said to have met death, and the nine alleged victims. Above, left to right, the Mesdames Cucher, Jaurme, Bab-clay, Pascal and Euisson. Below, left to right, the Mesdames March-adier Colomb, and Guillou.

Henri Landru, called the "French Bluebeard" and accused of murdering nine wives and a boy in his lonesome villa at Gambais, near Paris, is now facing trial in Paris for the murder of one of them. The state charges he buried his victims in a huge stove.
The villa is situated in a lonely spot in the forest of Rambouillet, about thirty miles from Paris. Landru says the mysteries will be cleared up at the first trial.

STEURNAGLE CASE MAY BE HELD UP FOR WEEKS

J. Henry Steurnagle, Monroe-up farmer, and his wife, Clara M. Steurnagle, may have to wait some weeks before they will know the decision in their divorce case, heard here before Judge H. W. Blackly last week.

While the judge was in Lima to hear minor matters, he told Clerk of Courts Ira F. Clem his desk was laden with material which must be gotten out of the way before he could consider the Steurnagle case.
In the meantime, Steurnagle and his wife are dwelling together under the same roof on their Monroe-up farm. He charged his wife failed to care for her farm duties. Mrs.
Steurnagle set up cruelly in a contest in her action.

Rouge and powder, if used to excess, clog up the pores of the skin and cause much damage.

FARMER IS FINED

Admits Making Whiskey in Big Still at Home

Arthur States, Monroe-up farmer, was fined $1,000 in Justice Ernest M. Botkin's court, Friday, when he pleaded guilty to manufacturing intoxicating liquor. States is the son of J. Aaron States, former county commissioner. His family and that of his father reside in the same residence on the States farm, three miles northwest of West Cairo.

Arraignment of States followed a raid by county officials Thursday night upon his farm home. At that time about five gallons of corn whiskey and 100 gallons of mash were found upon the farm.

A complete still, altho dismantled, was taken in the raid. States told Justice Botkin Friday that the physician had prescribed whiskey for his invalid mother, 79 years old, and that he was manufacturing it for her.

The court doubted the story in view of the big supply and imposed the fine. The top of the kettle wherein mash was cooked, was serving to catch rain water on the farm and the kettle sat a great ways off in the orchard. The coil was not far away.
The drain pipe was hidden in the weeds near the barn.

If you have a cold put a bag containing hot water at your feet; to your back for a backache, or at the nape of your neck when you have a headache or feel sleepless.

GARBAGE NUISANCES IN COUNTY ARE CLEANED UP, HEALTH DIRECTOR SAYS

Garbage disposal, insofar as it affects the county, is being carried on in a much more sanitary way, according to county health J. J. Sutter. An inspection of the different feeding grounds where household waste was being fed to hogs shows that practically all nuisances have been cleaned up.

Several of the worst feeding grounds have been closed up entirely and a number of those who were violating the law have quit hauling garbage from the city. This makes it necessary for the housewife to dispose of waste foods as best she can. In the absence of any organized system of collection the garbage is being either fed to chickens or buried. Where neither is done the garbage is permitted to set in the can for a week or two till some stray collector comes along.

Since the feeding places have been cleaned up, and complaints to the health commissioner have practically dropped to none at all, Dr.
Sutter does not contemplate any drastic steps at the present time.
He intends to wait till the city has decided what disposition it will make of the problem.

NEW LIGHTS CAUSE OF DIVORCES

or Illumination Declared Responsible for Family Troubles

CTOR'S NEW THEORY

ath Aroused by Wrong System, Says Decorator

By MARGERY REX

NEW YORK — (International Service)—Here is a doctor's description:

"Turn on the incandescents and Young wives show your happy, wrinkled skins in the gleam of 'broad daylight.' Old shades with rose and gold the inquisitive beams of your floor

up and reading light, lest time's clutches on your face make husbands to leave home."

A prescription from Dr. M. Luck-

to promote domestic felicity,

d at the convention of the National Electric Light Association,

a speaker is director of applied

at the Bela Resnick Labora-

in Cleveland, and he has look-over the latest in lighting appar-

us from the standpoint of psychology.

Many divorces have been caused by unsympathetic lights in the home, declared.

Soft candlelike glows perpetuate the soft atmosphere of courtship,

whereas the learned light expert is not too coldly scientific to consider the ways of love and humanity.

"Certainly moonlight is the traditional 'spooning light,'" avers Dr.

Luckiesh, "but when light grows warmer, the tendency to conversation grows less. Did you talk when spooned in the moonlight? No?

Of course not!"

Therefore, beware of the too dim,

perhaps too fashionably blue light, which may lurk in the living room to send romance out into the lights of the night.

Likewise avoid the harsh overhead

lamps, which seem determined to show husbands what unlovely

they are picked.

But what is the opinion of woman on all these warnings?—In particular on the one who has specialized in making homes lovely?

"In claiming that one of the chief causes of divorce is 'unsympathetic lighting' in the home, Dr. Luckiesh perhaps overstated the case a little, since, if sociologists are to be believed," says Mrs. Fales, "bad lighting is a far more frequent cause of divorce than incorrect lighting."

"It is, nevertheless, a fact well known to psychologists, oculists and the medical profession that harsh, unshaded lights, wrongly placed,

are not only unbecoming to husband

and wife alike, but are frequently beings who live among them, and that the effect of an artistically furnished interior may be practically ruined by incorrect lighting, whereas even a commonplace room can be made attractive by cleverly placed and carefully shaded lights.

"This fact is the basis of the new tendency in home lighting now in process of development by interior decorators and illuminating experts throughout the country. This tendency is toward the use of a number of light sources of low intensity, with shades in mellow, harmonizing colors, in preference to the former practice of using a single light source of high intensity in the center of the room.

BOTH COMFORT AND BEAUTY.

In the well-planned modern home
the sofa-table, with its twin lamps, so shaded as to protect the eyes while concentrating the light upon the book or work, not only provides comfortable seats for two, but adequate illumination for each.

"Again, where there is a center table, it holds a reading lamp whose mellow light, filtered thru a silk shade of gold or rose, is as becoming to the occupants of the easy chairs drawn up on either side as it is restful to their eyes. In addition, each of the larger chairs on the outskirts of the room is provided with its individual, carefully shaded lamp, so that there need be no quarrelling because one or two members of the family monopolize the light.

"Given where a central fixture is used for general illumination, its lights are shaded to prevent glare, and it is supplemented not only by lamps to provide concentrated light where needed, but also by side brackets which help to illuminate the room evenly and which, with their decorative shades or shields, provide interesting spots of color in the room.

"Altho its original inspiration was decorative rather than psychological, the new lighting, by eliminating glare, promoting comfort and making the home more beautiful will unquestionably aid in maintaining the domestic harmony which Dr.
Luckiesh has taken as his theme."

HARSH LIGHTS AROUSE WRATH.

Who has not visited some home where a harsh overhead light made heads ache and eyes sting, where everyone who sat under its fierce rays felt angry not only at the light itself but at the hostess who would install and condone such illumination?

This resentment is not unjust, according to Mrs. Fales' statement.

Not too extreme, either, in view of Dr. Luckiesh's pronouncement:

"The lighting of the home has a much greater effect upon the moods of us human beings than we think.
When a man or woman can 'paint'
his or her rooms to suit his or her wrath or lassitude there will be fewer cases in the divorce courts. And think of the benefits of the lamp if have mentioned to women. When a family can dine under moonlight or sunset at pleasure electricity has furnished a means of peacefully running the gamut of human emotions."

NEWS OF DECORATIONS EXPERT
Mrs. Winnifred Fales, of the department of furnishings and decorations of Good Housekeeping Magazine, has come to the rescue and ordered us excellent and practical advice about the restful and pleasing lighting effects which may safely be used in the home.

nervous disorders, with consequent irritability, which is quite likely to lead to disharmony.

"The unbecomingness of glaring lights, to which Dr. Luckiesh alludes somewhat facetiously, is too well known to require comment, but it is only gradually being realized that harsh lights are as unbecoming to home furnishings as to the human

OPEN LETTERS

To Fred Fisher

DEAR FRED: I note that you have tendered your resignation as safety director of my city. I understand that this came as the climax to a misunderstanding between yourself and the mayor, who appointed you, because of his insistence in certain matters.

I want to take this opportunity, Fred, to congratulate you upon the manner in which you have handled affairs in the police and fire departments during the last year and a half. You have kept the fire-fighting force up to the highest possible efficiency and have made real headway there.

In the police department your record is as good. It is true that there have been a number of investigations, accusations and probes of this department together with legal action, but the result has been the same in every instance—exoneration for those under your direction.

I am certain that the people of my city are grateful to you, working as you did for the insignificant salary of $600 a year. But then salary is not a matter considered when a man has the best interests of his home city at heart and I am certain that you did have the interests of Lima at heart during your incumbency in the office you soon will leave.

In closing, Fred, I want to thank you on behalf of my people for your untiring efforts and to convey the information that you have the best wishes of all.

LIMA BEANE.

To Citizens

FRIENDS: Stray dogs, which attack pedestrians, are reported to be at large in Lima, especially the West End. They already have injured some, and make it extremely dangerous for children to be on the streets. You can, by cooperation with the officials, quickly rid the city of these pests by reporting them when they are noticed.

LIMA BEANE.

To Chief Roush

DEAR JAKE: Some cities have adopted the plan of holding a weekly commendation session for officers who have distinguished themselves in some manner. Words of appreciation help. Wouldn't it be a good plan for my city? It would be a good offset to the panning sessions for those who have blundered. Think it over.

LIMA BEANE.

To Park Superintendent Zartman

DEAR CLAUD: It was my pleasure to spend considerable time a few days ago in the City park and upon that occasion I noted the fine manner in which the grounds are kept. Please accept my thanks for your interest. There is nothing finer than a good park and I believe you are doing your best to give Lima that.

LIMA BEANE.

To Lima Beane

DEAR SIR: Is there a weed law in Lima? I am a citizen of Lima and have been an invalid for the last eight months and live near Lincoln Park, but I can't see the park for weeds which grew last year and those which have sprung up this year. There are four or five vacant lots between Grove-ave and the park and they are filled with weeds. They are a disgrace and something should be done.

AN EAST SIDER.

To President W. G. Harding

MR. PRESIDENT: A question has just been asked you by a worthy editor, Mr. Hamilton Holt, the answer to which is eagerly awaited by millions of people in this country as well as abroad.

Mr. Holt summed up the sentiment of a great percentage of your countrymen when he said that if you delay explaining to the American people the terms of your proposed association to supplant the Wilson League of Nations much longer people will conclude that you have no concrete plan at all or that you propose to put party harmony above world welfare.

You told the world some time ago that you had a plan, but so far it has not been explained. The Wilson league was defeated at the last election and the people who defeated it are looking to you for your ideas. Why delay them longer?

LIMA BEANE.

To Ohio Electric Officials

GENTLEMEN: I am extremely glad to note that you will continue uninterrupted service over the various lines which have comprised your system after the system is separated by court order, which appears probable now.

I am directly interested in this matter, my city being one of the principal points along your lines. Hundreds of persons travel in and out of Lima daily on your cars and it would be a serious handicap if the service is broken up along with the lines.

LIMA BEANE.

To Members of the International Rotary Organization

MY FRIENDS: It is with a great deal of pleasure that I am informed that you have taken up the matter of international disarmament and that you will foster and support this movement. I am convinced that you will be able to accomplish much in this respect, knowing the great things you have done in other lines. You may count on my hearty support in any possible way.

LIMA BEANE.

To Ex-Sergeants Eberle and Goebel

FRIENDS: With the lining up of affairs in my city at present you may not again wear the uniform of my police department, on which you served long and well. I want, however, to express my appreciation of your past services and to compliment you upon the manner in which you were exonerated a few days ago. The verdict of a jury composed of twelve of my good citizens is sufficient for me.

LIMA BEANE.

To American Legion Members

BOYS: I regret that it is necessary for an appeal to be made to you to attend meetings of the wonderful organization of which you are members. This, however, is the case and I hope that you will heed the call and be more regular in your attendance in the future.

Yours is a great body, destined to become an important factor as time goes on. It should be a pleasure to you to assist in making it what it rightly deserves to be.

JUST FOLKS—BY EDGAR A. GUEST

THE NEWSPAPER MAN

Bit of a priest and a bit of a sailor,
Ready to help, nor will dizziness blind him,
Bit of a doctor and bit of a tailor,
Bit of a lawyer, and a bit of a detective,
Bit of a judge, for his work is corrective;
Cheering the living and soothing the dying,
Risking all things, even dare-devil flying;
True to his paper and true to his plan,
Just look him over, the newspaper man.
Sleep! There are times that he'll do with a little,
Work till his nerves and his temper are brittle;
Fire cannot daunt him, nor long hours disturb him,
Gold cannot buy him and threats cannot curb him;
Highbrow or lowbrow, your own speech he'll hand you,
Talk as you will to him, he'll understand you;
He'll go wherever another man can,
That is the way of the newspaper man.

WHAT THE STARS PREDICT

This is a luck day.
This should be a lucky day for mining affairs, especially in cases where labor problems are concerned.
Again the stars are read as indicating that there will be changes in the president's cabinet; unfounded rumors will precede these changes.
This is a fortunate time for making agreements of any sort, as they should result favorably for all concerned.
Farmers should benefit by these rumors.
Persons whose birthday this is should avoid making important changes during the coming year.
Children born on this day will meet with much opposition in their business career but in spite of this will be successful.

ANOTHER MASSACRE.

A prominent Broadway manager
Has just slaughtered
All his chorus men,
After a manner of skeaping,
Chorus men will no longer
Be seen in his productions.
But we would like to add
That they haven't been seen
For the past twenty years.
We have always known in Sort of a melancholy way
That they were among those present.
But they have never made
An impression upon us.
They have always added
The certain amount of gloom
Which seems to be necessary
To musical productions.
But their lovely environment
Has always cast them into the shade.
The melancholy will now
Have to be furnished
By the comedians and we trust
They'll be equal to the task.
The saddest looking men
We have ever seen have been
The chorus men, and they Seemed to be nursing
A secret sorrow, even when
Their dress suits fitted.
But now they are gone
To return no more.
And maybe they will be able
To go out and get good jobs
In which they can smile
And cheer up once in a while.

NEVADA CONVICTS CARPENTER FORCED TO DIE BY GAS TO QUIT JOB

Criminals Will Be Drugged in Air-Tight Cells

IN FINAL MEAL

Did Choice of Bullets Or Hangman

By H. W. FARADAY

RENO, Nov.—(International News Service)—Thudding crash of bullets as a convict dropped from a scaffold will no longer bring legal death in Nevada. Instead, drugged in an air-tight chamber, where death will come in stealthy approach of a tasteless, odorless gas.

Prior to January of this year a condemned man had choice of two ways to die. He could select the bullet or the hangman's noose. Choice was removed by the Legislature, meeting in Carson City early this year, when it passed a bill decreasing death penalties should be exacted thru the use of a deadly gas.

A new tier of cells is rapidly nearing completion at the State penitentiary in Carson City. In that tier of cells are three which to outward appearance correspond exactly with the other cells in the prison house. Written over the entrance of each cell, unseen except by eyes cast upon face death, is a legend of anguish, for the three cells are death cells.

Death cells in literal truth, for the cell in which a condemned prisoner passes the last days of his life is the cell where death will come to him or her sometime during the fatal week which has been set apart as the week of death.

INVISIBLE GAS PIPES

Close by the death cells lies the executioner's room. There are no windows to swing into contact here, no buttons to push which will release a drop beneath the prisoner's feet. Instead, great tanks of death-gas stand waiting the day of arriving out sentence pronounced as penalty for crime. Pipes lead from this room to each of the death cells. Their outlets cannot be seen by the eyes of the condemned, yet thru the granges leading into the cells death will rush when the signal has been given.

Provisions in passing sentence will be the same as provisions under the old infliction of death penalty except for phrasing "shot until dead" or "hanged by the neck until dead," for which will be substituted "placed in a room filled with lethal gas there to remain until dead."

In all three cells arrangements have been made so ventilation may be cut off, and in each door is a heavy glass window. Witnesses will use the windows thru which to view the unfortunate passing from life to death.

In passing sentence death is designated to take place within a week under Nevada's new law, when the final week arrives any meal may be the condemned man's last meal on earth, for in the food on the fatal day will be a strong opiate. As he munches eating drowsiness will close his eyes in sleep, the window to his cell will be closed air-tight, and the door will swing on him, or the last time, witnesses will take their places, and as the deadly gas

Robenstein Got Help in Nick of Time, He States—Back at Work

"I believe I began taking Tanlac just in time and it certainly did the work for me and wasn't long about it, either," said L. E. Robenstein, a well-known carpenter of Lakemore, O., recently.

"I had always enjoyed good health up until about six months ago when I saw myself slipping. Dizzy spells would come on me while at work and if I was on a ladder I just had to grab hold of whatever I could to keep from toppling over. Finally I had to give up my job and quit all work. I tried a lot of medicines and went to specialists and spent a great deal of money, but I couldn't find anything that would reach my case.

"I kept seeing where so many Akron people were taking Tanlac that I made up my mind to give it a trial. Well, sir, by the time I finished my first bottle I felt able to go back to work and it's a fact, I haven't missed a day since. I have taken five bottles now and am better in every way and have been built up all round. I can't say anything too good for Tanlac."

"Tanlac is sold in Lima by Hunter's Drug Store and leading druggists."—Adv.

is forced into the death cell the condemned man will go to his Maker without ever having known that final payment is being made.

During the debate on the bill several legislators pointed out the fact that mental torture would not be ended with use of lethal gas instead of rifle or noose. All the horrors of waiting must be borne under the lethal gas law which were experienced by condemned men who had made their choice of being shot or hanged. The question was raised relative to how an opiate would be administered in cases where the condemned start a hunger strike with refusal to eat any food during the week decreed as time for execution. Another question asked was whether "the average man would not rather die with his faculties alert, meeting death as a man rather than as a dumb brute?"

No answers were given these questions. When they will be answered in actual experience of a man or woman waiting death cannot be told, for none is waiting death at the present time.

Nevada has not exacted a death penalty since 1913. With the privilege of electing the form of death, either shooting or hanging, a man known only as Casey was hanged in that year. No one has ever learned Casey's real identity. He was known only as Casey when arrested for murder, he went thru his trial alone and friendless as Casey, he was hanged by the neck until dead as Casey.

There was but one outstanding feature of his case. Casey had only one leg, the missing member being replaced with a wooden leg. He was asked a few days before being hanged whether he would die with or without his wooden leg. He said "Without it." On the morning of the fatal day he decided he wanted his wooden leg to go with him. This necessitated a last minute refiguring of weights and length of drop, but his desire was granted, and Casey went to his death without parting company from his wooden leg.

BALLOT PLEASED AGED WOMEN

Gave Them Opportunity to Vote
For Harding

RELATIVES OF PRESIDENT

Sisters, One 87, Other 93, Live Near Mt. Vernon

MT. VERNON, O. — (By Associated Press) — When the nineteenth amendment was adopted, there was wild rejoicing wherever suffragists gathered, but the action of voters didn't bring any more joy to hearts anywhere than those of Mrs. Clara Mitchell, aged 93, residents of Academia, near here.

It gave them the opportunity of voting for their sister's son, Warren G. Harding and it is said to be the first vote watching in the history of the United States.

They live together in a little home, and despite their advanced years do their own housework, plant and care for a large garden and take care of their own cow and chickens.

Mrs. Mitchell is extremely proud of the fact that she was at the home of Dr. Harding when a practicing rural physician in Marion (O.) when the president was born and that she bathed and dressed him on his arrival.

Both aunts maintain that Warren was not particularly different from any other boy, unless it was his persistence. Mrs. Mitchell said: "He was the most persistent boy I ever saw, and he seldom started anything that he didn't finish."

One of Warren's outstanding characteristics, Mrs. Mitchell added, "was his kind and thoughtful treatment of his mother. As a boy he was very obedient and after he grew up and went to Marion to be a newspaper reporter, there was hardly a week passed that he did not come home to see his mother, bringing with him a big bouquet. If for any reason he couldn't come, the flowers came anyway."

Neighbors say that when the news flashed across the country last November that Harding had been elected, Mrs. Mitchell exclaimed: "Thank God, the people of the United States have elected one of the common people to the presidency."

DRIVERS OF VEHICLES CARRYING CHILDREN TO BE LICENSED BY COUNTY

Every person who drives a vehicle which carries children to and from school will be required to take out a license before he will be permitted to carry on his work, according to provisions of the new school code as passed by the legislature during the last session.

Drivers must be over 18 years of age except in certain instances where high school boys of 16 or over haul children to and from the school which they are attending themselves. After a thorough inspection of the character and the ability of the applicant the county board of education may grant the license, thus its agent the county superintendent.

This provision of the law makes it possible for every driver of vehicles carrying children to centralized schools to be under the supervision of the county superintendent and aids in keeping incompetents from landing jobs.

Another provision of the same law provides that drivers of vehicles in which school children are being conveyed must stop before crossing a railroad or interurban track and be absolutely certain that no train is in sight. Failure to do this will cause the cancellation of the driver's license.

These new provisions have been added to make the hauling of children to centralized schools a safer operation.

ENO WILL STAGE SPANISH RODEO

20th Century Adaption of Old Western Roundup

BE HELD JULY 1-4

Historic Pageant of Original Carnival—Industrial Event

By H. W. FARADAY

ENO, Nev. — The Rodeo, or round-up, as it will be staged at Enos, the first four days of July, is the twentieth century adaption of the original carnival-industrial event as it took place in the days of the early California.

THE STORY OF THE RODEO

California, the home of the stock-raising industry in the West, had its precedents and its legends handed down to the Indians to the caballeros and their descendants. From the golden State cattle raising grounds across the Sierras into Nevada, Arizona, New Mexico and western Texas. As it spread the customs of the old Spanish rodeo spread with it the industry, also as commercialism swept in more and more, the rodeo, with its fine hospitality and gaiety, became the annual round-up. Never before the real basic customs of the rodeo were changed, however, for the use of hundreds of years governed the caballero as he slowly changed the buckaroo.

Always the mark of the old Spanish caballero and his rodeo, fiesta, the strikingly branded later day round-up. In early days the Hidalgo with picked following of vaqueros and their remudas of fine cattle horses, assembled at stated intervals at a chosen hacienda, on which, and rounded up cattle from the hills for miles round, driving them to the rodeo grounds to be rounded, earmarked and distributed to the various owners to be driven to the hills.

These rodeos lasted a week, sometimes longer. The days were filled with the serious and oft dangerous business of working cattle. In this business every able-bodied man took part. The evenings were filled with pleasure seeking, beginning with the stunts furnished by the owner of the rodeo grounds, where steers, roasted whole, were cut and distributed to all who cared to partake of the hospitality, the meal washed down with quantities of wine.

SOFT-STRUMMING GUITARS

Following the barbecue could be heard the soft tinkle of guitars, as gallant vaquerors serenaded their loved ones, or quickening music of the dance floor, called man and maid to the dance. Here, under the eyes of watchful chaparral, the ever new game of love was played.

Following the dance the men, picturesque in jackets and calzoners of leather or velvet, heavily trimmed with cords and buttons of silver, high-heeled boots, silken shirts and costly sombreros, would generally drink of brandy to instill life for the dawn and its resumption of work.

Day after day the programme would be repeated with slight variations, until men, women and beasts were exhausted. A few days rest, then off to other rodeos would go the younger caballeros, where at some distant hacienda flashing eyes of fair maidens would applaud their work in the day and half hidden by the inevitable fan, daringly first at night.

Young blood ever runs hot with desire of emulation, and the modern cowgirls and buckaroos equal and off surpass the daring riding of their forebears in the old stirring times now riding not only for the glance of dark eyes, but risking life and limb for applause of strange audiences and discomfiture of rivals.

COSTUME OF THE VAQUERO

How closely the lore of the old-time rodeo holds is seen in the costume of the present-day cowboy. The shape of the sombrero is the same as when the Spanish vaquero rode over the green hills of California to the hacienda of the rodeo. Practically all his equipment holds the characteristics which distinguished the outfit of the caballero in the golden days of the range. In this equipment a rigid fashion holds sway now as it did a hundred years ago, when the only way the luckier cowboy could advertise his prosperity was in the amount of gold and silver with which he could decorate his saddle, his bridle and his spurs.

Many old timers insist that, high as is the skill of the modern cowboy the buckaroo of bygone days in California and Nevada possessed a degree of skill far surpassing the expertness of the present-day rider. Early chronicles tell of wondrous feats, yet anyone who has witnessed a wild horse race at the Nevada round-up would question whether any of the men whose histories tell of riding feats could surpass the riders seen in this event.

Like desert at a banquet, the wild horse race is reserved for the finale of the round-up. In previous years it has brought the most phlegmatic to his feet, as the riders combined the thrill of a backing seat with the task of forcing the excited, maddened animals to show their speed in a dash around a quarter-mile track.

Wild horses, never before ridden, horses that have spent their lives on the open range, are led by the rider's assistant to the track. When there they are blindfolded, while a battle royal is staged in placing saddle and accoutrements on the animals. Then the horses have the blind removed, the starter fires his gun, and the riders somehow, some way, get on the horses, and they are off.

THE EVOLUTION OF THE RODEO

The cattle kings of the early eighties were worthy successors to the feudal lords of the earlier period. What the Spaniard began the American continued. In the round-up men were gathered from every part of the district and oftentimes from far-away districts, and where daring deeds and splendid riding is the product of the day's work it was natural that rivalry should occur and contests be staged.

Each district had its champions, and as the fame of a champion spread district and then State contests began to follow the annual round-up. These round-ups were the big holiday event for the cowboy and his friends. They gathered from the Panhandle of Texas to the Canadian Northwest, and exhibitions of shooting, riding and roping were given that were marvelous to those fortunate enough to witness the events.

It was only natural that in time civic organizations of cities would see the advertising value of the riding, roping and shooting ability of the buckaroo citizens of the State and the possibilities of bringing tourists to the West thru rodeos held in accessible parts of its domain. Out of this idea has grown the Nevada; the Rodeo of Salinas, California; and the Wild West celebrations of Cheyenne, Wyoming; Pendleton, Oregon, and Prescott, Arizona.

If you pay more than Newark prices these days for shoes, you are paying an unnecessarily high rate for satisfaction. You wouldn't do it if you realized that once more you can get the old-time quality at old-time prices. And you can—positively. If you will examine these handsome NEWARK shoes at $4 and $5, you will be absolutely convinced of that fact.

They are so far better, finer, more beautifully modeled and smarter than you thought shoes could be made to sell for $4 and $5 that you will always in the future see what NEWARK values are like before you buy anywhere.

The advantage we have over the average retailer is that we sell more than 4 million pairs yearly through our 400 stores, therefore we can not only produce them for less, but also sell them on a much closer margin of profit. At least let us show you these super values tomorrow before you buy anywhere.

FATHER IS DRIVEN OUT, HE SAYS

Son Charged by Dickman With Appropriating Business

C. C. Dickman, son of J. A. Dickman, is charged, in a petition filed in common pleas court, with driving his father away from his home, after the parent had financed a poultry farm for the son.

J. A. Dickman secured a restraining order, Friday, preventing the son from disposing of or consigning the business, or selling the automobile used in the business, for which Dickman says he has expended $2,300.

Thru an error, the contract made C. C. Dickman, the son, party of the first part, instead of the father, and Fred and Lillian Bird, of whom the land was purchased, parties of the second part. The father is seeking to have the court construe the contract as it was originally intended. The parent says the son has been transacting the business wholly in his own name, altho the contract called for an equal partnership between father and son.

The Dickman poultry farm is located on five acres of land in American.

WRORED PLANE IS BEING BUILT.

Constructing First
Aerial Tank

LONDON — (By International Service) — At an aerodrome on outskirts of London there is being constructed the first airplane of the most famous of the world's airplane builders in England, the machine being ordered by the Air Force and when completed will be used for special select service.

The machine is being maintained in the utmost secrecy, and even the few men who are working on it are not allowed to talk about it for what purpose it is to be used.

Like most of the newly-invented machines, this newest is a biplane, in the construction of which no canvas or bracing is used. The machine is being used for the purpose of attacking the enemy's air base, and instead of being made of wood is being made of three-ply wood.

It is understood, it is to be armed with armor plates, which will be extended to give the fullest protection to the engines. The machine is being used for the purpose of attacking the enemy's air base, and instead of being made of wood is being made of three-ply wood.

GO FROM HEAVEN TO HELL

Addict Tells Story of Victim's Life

(BY KENT WATSON)

ST LOUIS, Mo. — (International News Service) — Twitching lips, wan drawn and haggard facial features, nervous glances at the passersby, He disconcertingly brushes his fingers across his nose, peeks furtively up a dingy stairway, disappears.

An interval passes. Apparent ecstasy characterizes his reappearance. He straightens up, assumes a superficial dignity known only to his realm. He is persnicked, snooty, challenging the world to read behind his impassive mask of a flushed face.

Another interval passes. "I can tell you have a million if you need it," he says, glancing up. "Nice blue suit you have. What're the brass buttons for? You're an aviator! I'll give you a couple of airplanes. I own the largest factory in the world."

"Plumb dippy!" observes the officer, who is punching the "snowbird." Violation of the Harrison anti-narcotic act is the basis of the charge. His name when he waives examining trial after being arraigned before a United States Commissioner. No funds. Jail—to await the action of the grand jury.

OPERATION STARTED HIM. "Thirty-three snowbirds" will go to trial here at an early term of the Federal District Court. Wholesale raids against the illicit sale of morphine, cocaine and other "snow" will be conducted in the meantime.

"The operation started me," one of the old-timers said to me when I asked him what caused him to take up the "snow." "God, but I'd give my right arm to be free 'om the stuff! It's guaviny my soul away. The craving is what runs me nutty. No price is too high to pay for the stuff when you're out. There's nothing like its influence—sort of a heaven. Joe! Hoots all around. You don't know fear. You own the world. Money grows on trees. Everything's new and beautiful."

I had a pus pocket on my spinal column. The doctors didn't seem to know what was the matter with me. They kept me hooked up. My family's prominent in Kansas City now. They don't know where I am. Don't you tell 'em, for God's sake! After I'd suffered an agony for ten days a doctor made an incision in my back, and I got well—but I was a 'dope-head.' I didn't want to quit them. It was the only joy of life to be under the influence of the stuff.

"You could outwrite Shakespeare if you'd take a 'shot,' he said with a snickling laugh.

PROM HEAVEN TO HELL

His humor was passing. "I'm struck," continued the prisoner of fate. "I'm being railroaded to the coop. I'll be better off, tho, I want to get straight again—and then I'm going to start all over. I'll preach to 'beginners' if I can get the same old inspiration the stuff gave me. If you ever get a 'shot' you'll understand why it forms a 'come-back' habit so quickly."

"Why, I went to heaven last Thursday I played with the angels, ate nectar of the gods with them. Swell bunch. Rode up there on wings. Light as feathers—sailing thru the air as if on a bed of silk. The next day I was in hell. Not so nice. I suffered for the sins of all the world. Always a yawning blankness with the heat. No objective in life. A sort of a what's-the-use philosophy. Pain. Distorted mind. A brain which became a living flame. Itching sensations corraling the nerves into a corner, where they are useless. Spurned by everything good, elbowed toaching by wonderment of whether you'll ever get another 'sniff.' That's the inventory of the maniac a 'doper' becomes when he 'misses out.'"

DOPERS CAN BE SAVED. Churches don't do enough good, the "doper" told me. "Preachers seeking publicity by cavorting around and decrying evil," continued the "snow-bird," unwilling to let me depart. "They don't seem to care to stoop and help the 'down-and-outers' in the world's 'hotel de junk.' A 'doper' can be saved if anybody cares about him. But society seems repulsed by the presence of a 'bird' who's hit it hard and just drifts on down because it's the easiest way. We 'dop' men need the help of the churches. Lot o

LONG SUIT COATS ARE FORECAST FOR WEAR NEXT SEASON

By ELOISE

The outstanding feature of the new suits for the coming fall is the length of the coats. It is much too early to seriously consider the fall suit, but when one of the leading makers of suits in the country gave me a peep at his fall line, which is all ready, I discovered a few things about the coming styles which I felt you ought to know. The long coat is the main thing. Thirty-six inches is a very ordinary length and many are as long as thirty-eight or forty. Most of the suits are made with a slightly fitted back which is complete in either with or without a narrow string belt.

The suit pictured is typical of those which are being made in Cleveland, the largest garment center in the world next to New York. It is fashioned of navy blue velour with a plain straight skirt and a plain tailored coat with a tuxedo collar. The only trimming in evidence is three narrow bands of the material, which are stitched on flat at the seams. This suit will be the type generally worn in the early fall and it may be worn later into the season if a fur neckpiece accompanies it.

SEEK EDUCATION, BOY IS ADVISED

Youth With Little Schooling Wants to Enter High School

I am a young man of 18 and regret to say that I have not received much education. Because of sickness and other things at home I was forced to stop school when in the eighth grade. I am very anxious to improve my education and make something of myself. Do you think I am too old to start in again and take a high school course?

ANXIOUS
You are never too old to learn and improve him or herself. You are very fortunate in being able to have the opportunity to attend school again and you deserved much admiration and credit in desiring to further improve and enlarge upon your education. Many persons have begun the preparation for their life work when older than you and have made good.

Since you have been out of school for some time you might be a little rusty in some of the various branches, but you can easily overcome this by your determination and desire to learn. You will be able to grasp the subjects readily because you are old enough to understand the importance of applying yourself to your school work. By all means accept every bit of education which is offered you. Splendid positions and opportunities await every young man who is ambitious and desirous of bettering himself.

Dear Miss Smart:

I am 13 years old but am very tall and both look and act older than my age. Many people think I am 18. Do you think it would be alright for me to have boy friends?

Looks are very deceiving it must be admitted, but you mustn't take advantage of this. Of course, it is right and proper for you to associate on friendly or pleasant terms with your boy acquaintances. This does not mean, however, that you are old enough to accept the invitations or other attentions from these boys. It merely implies that you join them in those amusements which are shared in common by a group of young people, including both boys and girls.

AGNES
First of all do not drink liquids with your meals. Avoid potatoes and other starchy foods, fat meats, milk and eggs. Fruits except bananas will not increase the weight. Lean meat which is thoroughly cooked is alright.

Probe, Report Says

WARDEN STANDS BY FIGURES

State Examiners Wrong in Estimates, He Declares

COLUMBUS — (By United Press) — The legislative investigation of the penitentiary conditions, opened Monday, will be based on a reported discrepancy of $6,500 in the tobacco fund, it was learned today.

Milton Hoopengartner, and John Casey, state examiners, have prepared a report that Warden F. E. Thomas, as custodian of the fund, is liable for recovery of the amount.

AWARE OF FINDINGS
The examiner's report also charged that Thomas had spent 2,425 of the tobacco fund for automobiles which he has used in his official capacity.

Thomas today declared he was aware of the findings of the examiners. He said he would stand by his report to the state board of administration.

WRONG IN ESTIMATE
"My reports show that the profits from the sale of tobacco, tooth brushes, tooth paste and other small articles for prisoners and prison employees from early in 1916 to September, 1920, was $4,100," Thomas said. "The correctness of my accounts are sworn to by those prison officials who actually handled the money."

"The facts are that the state examiners are wrong in their estimates of what the profits were for the period. They fail to take into account hundreds of dollars' worth of tobacco each year is distributed among prisoners in the shape of gifts for good behavior and in athletic contests."

Thomas said he had used money from the tobacco fund for automobiles for prison use at the direction of the board of administration.

Prison discipline was partially demoralized last year, after it was learned an investigation of conditions was contemplated. Two companies of prisoners in the "idle houses" began yelling for a new warden when a special investigator appeared.

WOMAN RANCHOWNER TRANSACTS BUSINESS BY AERIAL LIMOUSINE

SAN FRANCISCO — The day of aerial limousines is no longer a thing of the future. It is a reality.

"Home, James." That is what Mrs. W. A. Keddie, owner of a string of valuable Nevada ranches told her aerial chauffeur the other day when she suddenly decided to return to Reno, Nev.

Mrs. Keddie, who has long been an enthusiast of aviation and travels almost entirely by airplane, called her pilot by telephone and said: "Let's leave at 2 o'clock." W. W. Williams is Mrs. Keddie's pilot.

Mrs. Keddie, who acts as manager to her several ranches and calls Fallon, Nev., her home, purchased the machine some time ago to be used in travelling between her ranches. She found it so successful that when she deemed it necessary to remain in San Francisco on business she telegraphed for the plane and she might finish her affairs here and still return to Reno in time to meet business appointments there.

At each of the ranches she has built a landing field and a system of lighting has also been established for night flying. However, Mrs. Keddie has done little night flying. Mrs. Keddie said she expected to take a vacation this summer — an aerial one — in which she expects to visit New York and other Eastern cities.

THE TRUTH WILL BREAK OUT
TUNOPAH, Nev. — The post house entered here and a mattress and set of blankets stolen from a bed just vacated by a malignant case of smallpox. Police are "awaiting developments."

GENERAL WOOD, IN PHILIPPINES, DISAPPROVES OF ISLAND'S FREEDOM

CLEARING OF CHANNEL OF RIVER WILL STOP STENCH FOR SUMMER

That cleaning of the old channel in the river will afford temporary relief from offensive sewage odors, was the decision made by Chamber of Commerce river committee, and Engineer Vaughn Miller, as a result of their investigations along the stream late Thursday afternoon.

Digging a new channel below the Erie bridge, will not give relief, according to the city engineer. Could the new channel be carried for a distance of a mile, it would serve the purpose. But running it a few feet below the bridge will accomplish little. On the other hand clearing the old channel, will get rid of the stench for the remainder of the summer.

Surveyors were instructed Friday to make levels at the Erie bridge. Result of this survey will be placed before council. The council sewer and water committee is to visit the bridge Friday.

DANGERS OF CITIES WORSE THAN ALASKA

SEATTLE — "Life in Alaska is as safe as a Federal Reserve bank compared to the hazardous crossing of streets in Seattle, according to the belief of Andrew M. Taylor, who came 'outside' for the first time this Spring since 1898.

"Talk about facing perils in the North! Why, I'd rather drive a dog team across a glacier at 60 below than take chances of crossing Third avenue at Union street," he said. "And the noise! You folks seem to think you've got to be hardy to live up North. But I'd give anything I've got to be out of here, where a person can hear himself talk."

Taylor came out to meet John B. Burnham, of New York, president of the American Game Protective Association whom he will guide on a hunting and scientific expedition in Siberia. The party will go to Nome, then cross the Bering Sea. They will return from Siberia the same way and take the last boat down to Seattle about October 1.

Burnham is in quest of a number of varieties of Siberian sheep not to be found on this continent, and plans to bring back specimens of these animals.

TORPEDO SCENE REVIVED
SISTERSVILLE, W. Va. — A severe electrical storm at Friendly, this county, so vividly reminded William Staten of the time when the steamship Vermont was torpedoed by a German submarine during the World War that he suffered collapse and became a raving maniac for a period. Staten was a member of the crew of the Vermont and was in the engine room of the vessel when it was torpedoed. Fifty-eight men were killed by the resultant explosions. Staten was en route from the East to the home of an aunt at Ashland, Ky.

SHOULD DRINK QUART OF MILK DAILY

BOSTON — Milk is rich in vitamins, says Dr. M. J. Roseneau, professor of preventive medicine at Harvard, in an original article just published. Furthermore, he says that milk is rich in calcium in a readily available form—and that children need five times as much calcium per pound of body weight as adults.

"In order to supply this important salt to growing bones and developing teeth, as well as to furnishing vitamins for the utilization of food," says the article, "a child should drink a quart of milk a day. It will not then suffer from a deficiency disease. Our health, as well as power to utilize food, depends upon the daily intake of these vitamins. Life itself is threatened by deprivation of them for any length of time. Hence the vitamin problem is of daily and universal interest to all persons."

SID CHAPLIN IS MAKING NEW COMEDY

TWO NEW PLAYS ARE OFFERED IN LIMA THEATRES

(By ESTHER WAGNER)

THE husband of a famous wife is at a disadvantage. The brother of a famous man is no better off. It is made easy for him to follow in his famous brother's footsteps. But he is constantly compared to the famous one, to his own disparagement.

This introduces Sid Chaplin, brother of the gifted Charles Spencer Chaplin.

Years ago he made a comedy Keystone called "The Submarine Pirate."

About that time his brother leaped to fame, and he turned his whole attention to managing his brother's affairs. Now, finally, he has gone back to making comedies himself. His first, to be shown here soon, is called "King, Queen and Joker."

George Jean Nathan, play critic, rises up every year or so and announces his opinion that Sid Chaplin is the best movie comic he ever saw. I didn't think so much of that picture called "The Submarine Pirate."

Still, a comedy must have been pretty good to be remembered so long. We'll have a better chance, tho, to judge by seeing "King, Queen and Joker."

It is about a barber who looks like a certain king, and when the king is kidnapped by plotters the barber takes his place on the throne of Corona. Sidney Chaplin is not the comedian only. The picture was written and directed by Sidney Chaplin.

IT TAKES WILLUM TO SHOW 'EM, DOESN'T IT?

WE HAVE with us today the photoplay, "Bare Knuckles" wherein another of Fox strong men goes out and shows a rival construction gang what's what. "Bare Knuckles" they call him, tho the subtitles assure you he has a warm heart.

William Russell, the star, has much muscle, a friendly smile and considerable zip. Whether or not in "real life" he could accomplish the wonders he does on the screen, remains an unsettled question. Be that as it may, however, his cinema plays are quite satisfactory and free from any play to the gallery.

He has a rather good story this trip, a story that gives him the right to display his kind heart, his strong arm and his deep determination. It gives him a chance to be good to one girl and make love to another; to stick by his friends and give his enemies you know what, ending up by marrying the girl and making every one happy.

Now I ask you, what more does a William Russell, George Walsh or a William Farnam need? Nothing. The best thing about the picture is the snow scenes. These are great. You can feel the sting of the blizzard, smell the clean, cold fragrance of the evergreens and the smoke of the warming fires.

Then, you'll probably like most of the people in the case you are supposed to like, and hate those you are supposed to hate. Altogether, you are apt to rather enjoy "Bare Knuckles." And there's that.

At the Sigma today and Saturday.

EVA NOVAK STARS IN "WOLVES OF THE NIGHT"

"WOLVES OF THE NIGHT" is the kind of story that James Oliver Curwood writes so well, tho he didn't write this one. It has a Curwood plot, a nice day, the required number of half-breed villains, dance-hall girls, etc., and for that very reason you may like the picture immensely. We say you MAY like it. We don't always agree, do we?

The producers nowadays work in various ways their wonders to perform and in this particular picture they use a snow-slide. In the nick-atime it slides, burying all those who need to be gotten rid of so that the heroine and her ardent swain can wed. And all the time we thought it was going to be the dog, half wolf and half dog, that would do the saving stunt, for whenever they ring in a dog, you can be sure that said dog will have something to do with the ultimate and unavoidable final fade-out. That was once we guessed wrong.

The scenes take place somewhere in the north, where lives Aurora Thresh, whom, a subtitle informs you, has an "unawakened soul." Two men love her, one a weakling, the other a be-whiskered miner. The weakling goes away to make good, but instead of doing all he has intended, he comes under the spell of the "Rose of Spain," a wicked dancer if ever there was one. Well, when the final showdown arrives, the weakling chokes the Rose and Aurora finds that she loves the husky miner. And girls, this miner is some looker, when he emerges from his winter's growth of alfalfa!

Some of the most wonderful scenes of the north you will ever have the pleasure of seeing are shown in this production. The subtitles are horribly stagey and goopy, and about half of them could be dispensed with entirely. Miss Novak, minus a lot of makeup, might be a good actress, but—

"Wolves of the North" will not bore the elders, but boys will like it best.

THEY ALL RETURN, SOONER OR LATER

INASMUCH as you are a movie fan and know all the old and new players by the first names, you'll be interested to learn that your old favorite, Ethel Grandin, is returning to the screen in Metro's

MANY BOYS WANT TO ATTEND ARMY CAMP

When the Army recruiting service closed up shop last winter it left a lot of would be soldiers out in the cold. Evidence of this was given Thursday afternoon and Friday when applicants for the summer training camp at Camp Knox, Ky., stormed the Chamber of Commerce and exhausted the supply of application blanks.

A majority of the applicants are boys, between the ages of 16 and 21 years.

A hurry up call for blanks was sent to Columbus Friday, Lima and Allen-co will fill their quota of 89 men, according to J. Kennard Johnson, manager of the Chamber.

MANY MATTERS TO COME UP AT RED CROSS MEET

Among the important matters to be discussed at the regional conference of American Red Cross representatives in Marion Friday will be how the organization may function during a city disaster, such as Pueblo flood. J. W. Jacoby, chairman of the Marion-co chapter will preside.

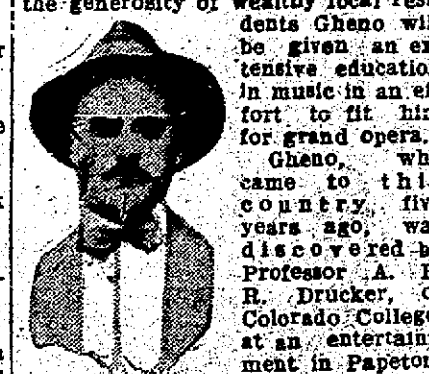

The status of former service men will occupy considerable attention.

The question of production and salvage will also be taken up. Organization of a county nursing committee and how it functions will be discussed by Mrs. Catherine D. Poling, Lima.

MINER DISCOVERED WITH A VOICE LIKE CARUSO

COLORADO SPRINGS, Colo.—

An embryo Caruso has been discovered in John Gheno, thirty-three, an Italian coal miner of Papeete, near here, according to the belief of Professor Brown, head of the School of Music at Colorado College, who has the generosity of wealthy local residents Gheno will be given an extensive education in music in an effort to fit him for grand opera.

Gheno, who came to this country five years ago, was discovered by Professor A. P. R. Drucker, of Colorado College, at an entertainment in Papeete, when the Italian sang several songs of his native land. The singing was so remarkable and the tone and volume so tremendous that Drucker was astonished. He sought out the miner later and had his voice tested by Professor Brown. Gheno's voice so surprised Professor Brown, who has trained many notable soloists, that he insisted upon Gheno at once taking up the study of music. Gheno at first de- married, because of lack of funds. "I have no money to support my wife and two children," the miner told Professor Brown. "I work hard in the mines all day and am too tired at night to study."

But the two college professors raised a fund to care for Gheno and his family during a year of study. It is predicted that it will take nearly that time to train the Italian for concert work, as he has no knowledge whatever of the technique of music. Despite the fact that he cannot read a note, it is said that his tenor voice offers tremendous possibilities, as he has been singing the Italian folk songs for many years. Gheno's training will start this week with Professor Brown.

GAS INFORMATION IS REQUESTED

Questions Concerning Pressure and Quality Are Asked

CONTRACT IS REFUSED

Gas Costing 45c Cannot be Sold at 50c

With E. R. Curtin, head of the Lima Natural Gas Company informing them that neither the Lima Company nor the Medina Company agree to any guarantees of B. T. U. or pressure in the new franchise with Lima and with the same official telling them that with the Medina company charging the Lima company 45 cents per thousand for their product, the Gas Supply Committee of the Lima Chamber of Commerce Friday addressed five questions to the Public Utilities on the subject upon which they want light.

QUESTIONS ASKED

- (1) Is there any standard specifications upon which a natural gas producing company must deliver its product to a distributing company?
 - (2) In case the producing company delivers gas thru a distributing company and this gas is metered to the distributing company at a varying pressure, is the distributing company bound to pay for that gas in the meter registers or is an adjustment made to some standard pressure?
 - (3) Is it necessary for the distributing company to deliver the same quality gas to the consumer as he gets from the producing company with the exception of perhaps a few minutes?
 - (4) Is it customary for the new franchise ordinance or contracts to specify B. T. U.'s and guarantees of pressure?
 - (5) We understand that the Millard act will compel a distributing company to supply gas for a period of five years after expiration of a contract, should the city and distributing company fail to agree on a new franchise. Does the law operate likewise with a producing company furnishing its product to the distributing company?
- THREE MEETINGS HELD
The Chamber committee has been in session three times this week in effort to co-operate in bringing out a satisfactory arbitration between the city and the Lima company. At one of these meetings Mr. Curtin said that because of the passage of the 50-cent ordinance by the city, the Medina Company had refused to sign a contract last week. New York City telling him that the company could never sell gas at 45 cents for 50 cents. He also exhibited the contract form submitted by the Medina Company which included a phrase that at the end of four years, the length of the proposed contract, all dealings between the Lima company and the Lima company could end. Mr. Curtin informed the committee that the Lima company refused the original contract on this basis, as according to wording, at the end of four years, the Medina company could cut off its gas and with the signed contract the basis, even the Public Utilities Commission would be unable to compel them to keep on selling their gas to the Lima Company.
- DUTCH PLAN ABANDONED
County commissioners Friday dismissed the petition of Marion-typists for a waterway, to run thru a west part of the township. Trustees must pay the cost. The 14th, several miles in length, would benefit 40 farmers along its way. Estimated cost was more than $11,000.

GIRL MUSICIAN IS CHILD PRODIGY

Could Improvise at Age of Three

NEW YORK — (By International News Service) — A ten-year-old musical prodigy lives in Wood Ridge, New Jersey. Just across the Hudson, the child is Grace, a sharp, Castagnetti, a daughter of American parents. Despite her extraordinary talent for music, Grace is a very human little girl with every normal characteristic of other American children.

At the age of three, Grace was playing in concert. She had but to hear a song once and she could reproduce it on the piano, and often improvise upon it, making the rendition doubly beautiful and twice as intricate. More than that, she could transpose the piece into any key requested, the she knew nothing of keys.

When she was seven years old, Grace attracted the attention of Dr. N. J. Eisenheimer, who gave her her first lessons. The lessons have continued now for three years, in which time she has given three recitals of her own. At each recital the little artist rendered works of the masters, such as selections from Liszt, Grieg, Paradies, Debussy, MacDowell and Schumann; sonatas from Beethoven, Scarlatti and Mozart, as well as Bach's English Suites.

Grace attends public school every day and stands as high in her studies as she does in the pursuit of music. She attends Sunday School, in fact she has not missed Sunday School in years.

Those who have heard the youthful artist believe her inordinate powers of improvisation, coupled with her natural inclinations for music, will place her yet among the American master virtuosos.

KENOSHA SCEPTICAL OF RUSSIAN MIRACLE CURE

KENOSHA, Wis. — The citizenry of this city is divided into two camps over the remarkable recovery of Andrew Morris, a Russian religiousist, from crippling injuries, suffered a year ago. Morris and his friends say he was "miraculously healed" thru the "faith of prayer."

Morris prayed in Russian, hour after hour at a tiny mission here. He prayed without success. He had used crutches for a year, with limbs all disjunct and twisted horribly. He had been crushed in a Kenosha factory.

One day a fellow missioner told Morris to pray in English. Morris learned the tongue enough to repeat three or four prayers. Back he went to the mission. He prayed several days without success. Then came a day when he prayed with a new hope in his voice. He had had a vision the night before. Fifteen minutes of monotonous droning—then Morris collapsed. Convulsions seized him. He writhed on the floor. Ten minutes later he arose and walked—without crutches.

This is the story of Morris and his friends. The city is divided in belief.

"She was always bright, and last Fall when school started and the child-dress came in to get their books, she asked for one, too. She spent most of her time in the store with me. She had already learned her letters from blocks. I gave her a primer, and in a few weeks she could read every sentence in it. Soon she mastered the first reader. In January she had read thru the second reader twice and now is in the third reader."

FRENCH BRIDE WAS VIOLENTLY HOMESICK

CHICAGO — Chicago's street cars broke up an international war romance according to Louis A. Troughton, a war bridegroom, who won a divorce here in Judge Sabath's Court. Troughton married Gabrielle d'Oge, member of a French titled family and daughter of the Mayor of Bourges, France, while overseas in 1918. He brought his bride back to Chicago after the armistice. "When she got here she wasn't satisfied," Troughton testified. "She finally threatened to kill me if I didn't go back to France with her. When I refused she twice tried to commit suicide and I finally had to send her back. She blamed Yankee cooking and the street cars here in Chicago."

Next Winter she will continue her studies.

Jack Dempsey Activities Are Outlined For Him--Other Sport Dope

By Jack Dempsey.

ATLANTIC CITY, N. J.—Got the old boxing gloves back on my hands for the first time in what seems like an age. The feel of them, and the sport in mixing it with two of my midgey sparring partners, certainly made a great day for me.

Started off the conditioning with a stiff walk of about six miles, mile at a time and then with a sprint of about 200 yards. After breakfast Johnny Coulton, former bantam champion, came out and tried out his trick of resisting lifters.

Simplest thing in the world to lift Johnny, who weighs only 110, when he doesn't apply the trick pressure. But when he placed his finger on my wrist and neck darned if I could hoist him.

IT'S GOOD SIGN
In the afternoon came the real workout nicely. That is always a good sign. I feel like I'll probably get down to 132 or 134 in a few days. Ought to hit around 130 on fight day unless we get some very hot weather meanwhile; if so, and I work along as I have planned, I may go into the ring weighing but little more than I did against Jess Williams in Toledo, which it would seem shows that I've been holding rather close thru the last two years to a bulk which means my best fighting.

I'd hoped to mix it with all my sparring partners today, but Jack Kearns ordered "easy" and I would permit only Irish Patsy Cline, the lightweight, and Babe Hermann, the bantam, to box with me. These boys are lightning fast and kept me stepping around in a lively way.

MUST PRACTICE SPEED
Practice in the matter of speed is just what I need. I'm not working much about my punching power. That's still there, just like it was in Toledo. But in this fight I'll probably have to hop around faster than I did against Jess. So I'm glad to have the little fellows to develop my leg muscles to their limit.

Just mistake I caught Irish Patsy on the chin with a right jab and it shook up the little fellow so much that I had to clinch him around a while until his head cleared. Then we had a fast action finish.

Herrmann's short arms didn't reach me very often, but my oh my how that kid can step around. Had me spinning around like a whirling dervish trying to keep fronting him. Didn't try to hit him, but one or two little jabs got him and topped his head. After two rounds with each of the boys Hermann and I engaged in a shoving match for three minutes. That is, we were supposed to do nothing but shoving, but that little fellow kind of forgot all about it being a pure shoving match and when he got in close he socked me a few in the pit of the stomach, perhaps to make up for the little jabs I landed on him.

It's Battling Ghee, vs. Jack Dempsey Friday in the "star" exhibition bout. They tell me the colored boy is a wizard. Great news. I'm looking forward to mixing it up with him, and if he's as good as they say I may accept his invitation to tear in every so often and try out my sockers.

PLANT SALE TO CONTINUE ALL THIS WEEK. BEDDING PLANTS, VEGETABLE PLANTS, ROSE PLANTS—AT A FRACTION OF THEIR REAL VALUE. OPEN EVENINGS—UNTIL DARK AT WOODLAND—AVI PLANT AND BELLEFONTAINE PLANT. ROSE ZETTLITZ CO.

With Georges Carpentier down to within a pound of fighting weight, Manager Descamps Friday outlined his probable program for the remainder of the training.

"One day, easy boxing. Next day, rest. So on." The diminutive Francois kept his charge close to the front porch today; the morning work in Sherry Park was lighter than usual, and the gloves were forbidden.

Georges himself says that he doesn't feel in the least over-trained; at his public workout he called for another round with Joe Jeannette after Descamps had said "Fini." Antoine Pollet, the latest addition to the Carpentier stable, is enthusiastic about Georges' chances against Dempsey. Pollet stopped a couple of flying rights during a secret session and claims the challenger hits like the kick of a mule.

Bill Brennan, the last man to meet Dempsey, watched Carpentier's public workout and praised the couple of flying rights during a secret session and claims the challenger hits like the kick of a mule.

Georges recalls old boxing match
Memories of a boxing bout with an American doughboy in France were recalled to the mind of Georges Carpentier and a long standing puzzle was solved when a colonel of infantry called upon the challenger to extend his best wishes.

"Remember," said the officer, "when your organization was relieved from the trenches and you were asked to come to an American camp under my command to box an exhibition?"

"You found yourself pitted against a big American doughboy who could hit. He forgot it was just an exhibition."

ATHLETES GATHER AT CHICAGO FOR MEET
Leading athletes from dozens of colleges and universities in every section of the country today gathered at Stagg field, Chicago, for elimination trials in the National Collegiate Athletic Association's track and field meet, the first event of its kind with so large a national representation ever held in the United States with the exception of the Olympic games.

Two hundred and thirty-seven athletes are entered. Every event drew from fifteen to more than forty entries, the 100 yard dash proving the most popular. Forty-one men will try their speed in this event and virtually all of them have run the distance in even time or better this year.

The 120 yard high hurdles also drew a heavy entry, many star

hurdlers desiring to try their ability against Earl Thompson, world champion, who will represent Dartmouth.

Speed to be chief aim of Champ Dempsey
With Jack Dempsey back in his training grind today, development of the champion's speed to match that of the crafty Georges Carpentier is the chief aim of his handlers.

Dempsey will be called upon to do some boxing with smaller and lighter sparring partners as he advances into the final two weeks of training, and mauling with the heavyweights in camp will be gradually cut down.

Jack Kearns, manager of the champion, plans to bring some of the fastest midweight and light heavyweights in the country into camp. Harry Greb, the Pittsburgh 170 pounder, who assisted Dempsey in training for the match with Billy Miske in Benton Harbor last Labor day, probably will join the titleholder's forces here next week.

Mike Gibbons, the St. Paul middleweight, and the Jamaica Kid also are slated for early replacements on the staff of sparring partners.

Dempsey started in on the program to increase his speed yesterday when he resumed boxing for the first time since his left eye was ripped open ten days ago.

Instead of working with the heavyweights in camp, he boxed two rounds each with Babe Herman, a shifty, hard-hitting featherweight, and Irish Patsy Cline, a lightweight.

Both made Dempsey box with the speed of a lightweight. The champion, who heretofore has boxed with a head protection whatever, wore a head gear yesterday. This was to protect the healing wound over his eye. He also wore a thick padding over the wound.

Altho Dempsey plans to enter the ring at "Boyle's Thirty Acres" July 2, weighing about 130 pounds, he may be lighter than this. Manager Kearns said, if the weather becomes hot in the days preceding the match, the titleholder scaled 134 pounds yesterday, according to Kearns.

CONDITION OF DEMPSEY IS EXCELLENT

By JACK McLAUGHLIN

(Undeclared Lightweight Champion)

ATLANTIC CITY, N. J.—Jack Dempsey is in better condition today than he was two years ago at Toledo.

Jack's wind is not right yet, but that is a natural condition after a ten-day layoff. He still carries a lot of inside fat but that is in his favor. He will have something to work off in the next ten days.

The condition of the champion has increased a lot since he won the title. He has not made the mistake of trying to learn boxing. He knows he is a "socker" by trade and he is sticking to it.

His footwork is much better. In fact, I think it is better than Carpentier's. He has a glide in and out without getting up on his toes as the Frenchman does. He steps to the side better than he did at Toledo.

I have maintained from the start that wind is going to be the biggest factor in the fight and Jack needs to get his breathing apparatus in better condition.

JERSEY BODY MAY YET NAME REFEREE

JERSEY CITY, N. J.—The New Jersey boxing commission is inclining to stand by its right to name a Jersey man to referee the Dempsey-Carpentier bout, according to Chairman Robert Dougherty Friday.

"We do not have to name a Jersey man," he said, "and it is possible we shall not. However, the commission is responsible for everything that happens at the fight and we feel that we should name a man whose work is known here to be satisfactory."

Dougherty was presumed to have Harry Ertle in mind.

Miss Charlotte Boyle.

Miss Charlotte Boyle, national women's swimming champion for the 50 and 100-yard dashes, has set a new record for the 150-yard swim. Her feat was performed at Brighton beach.

NEW LEAGUE IS FORMED HERE

Another new league has been started in Lima.

It's the Junior Hi league, and is under the direction of U. E. Diener, playground supervisor.

There are already four teams in the organization, and Diener, Friday said, it is his desire to make either a six or eight team circuit. Every youngster in the city of junior high age is eligible to play in the league. Those desiring to enter are requested to get in communication with Diener by calling Lake 5553.

Plans are now being made to play three games a week. These games will be played on the College grounds, and will be called at 2 o'clock.

The four teams now in the circuit are: College Indians, Brice-ave Tigers, White Stars and Orioles.

SMITH DOES IT

PHILADELPHIA, Pa.—Smith's home run drive over the right field wall in the first inning, with Wambans on base, gave Cleveland a 2-1 victory over Philadelphia. John Walker also hit a home run, Wambans made four errors. Score: R. H. E. Cleveland 2 0 0 0 0 1 0—3 1 6 Philadelphia 0 1 0 0 0 1 0—2 6 0 Uble and Nunamaker; Naylor and Perkins.

Two base hit—Wambans. Home run—Smith, J. Walker. Bases on balls—Uble, 5. Struck out—Naylor, 3. Umpires—Morriarty and Evans.

L'I' ARTHUR GETS LUCRATIVE OFFER

LEAVENWORTH, Kansas—Jack Johnson, former heavyweight pugilist champion, serving a sentence in the federal prison for alleged violation of the Mann act, and who was offered fifty-five thousand dollars to meet Harry Wills at Jersey City, N. J., August 9, it was declared here Friday. Johnson's first public appearance after his release from prison will be at an athletic show in Leavenworth on July 9.

Another near squabble was held Thursday, when fans accused Glen Thompson of slugging Art. He was released on July 7, and who came into third. The fans afterwards proceeded to give Thompson

Rotarians Come From Behind And Win Game

By JIM BURBA

The world went round, the world went 'round, the world went 'round and 'round.

Even at that, the world didn't have a thing on the players who performed Thursday afternoon at Murphy-st ball lot as members of the Kiwanis and Rotary teams. The big feature of the pastime was that one more Rotarian succeeded in going 'round than did a Kiwanian, with the result that the Rotators defeated the Indians by a 9 to 7 score.

According to Noah Webster, or was it Dan? Yes, it must have been Dan, for Noah built the Ark. Anyway, according to the book, not the one carried by Mert Sealts. Get away, and lemme finish this.

"Rotary" is an adjective meaning "to turn as a wheel on an axle. That was just what the Rotarians did Thursday. In fact from the fifth inning on, rotate is something they did nothing else but. Not only they run around the bases, but they ran around the eight-run lead piled up by the Kiwanians, as the final score denotes.

JIM ISN'T JOLLY, NOW

The Rotarians had no more business winning that game, than a man has paying fifty snacks to see the merry razz as he came into the dugout. Incidentally, Thompson pulled another one of his famous Merkle's, when he, with Thomas on second, left the dizzy sack uncovered to stop a suspected punt. The punt never materialized, but when Glen returned to third, he was greeted by Thomas who stole the sack, while Thompson was visiting.

By losing Thursday's game, the Kiwanians stepped down into the cellar where they are now on equal terms, socially, with the Lions. The Rotarians lightened their grip on the top run by virtue of their victory.

STRIKE DENIED BY '200' COMMITTEE

Slate for Commission is Placed in Field by Body

OPPOSITION IS EXPECTED

Women Not Included in List of Candidates

Denial was made Friday morning that dissention was caused among members of the committee of Two Hundred in making selections for candidates for city commissioner.
Five men were chosen for the slate
the committee will endorse.
All of them had been seen by members, Judge Kent Hughes stated Friday, and had agreed to run. They are:

Col. John A. Harley, war veteran and candidate for mayor two years ago.
M. P. Colt, oil man and manager of the National Supply Co.
Ellis Jones, member of city council.
A. L. Wilker, labor leader and machinist, resides at 620 N. Metcalf-st.
H. L. Breckenridge, purchasing agent for the Lima Locomotive.
JONES IS FISHING
Altho the committee announced that all of the five men recommended had agreed to serve, only partial verification could be made Friday.
Councilman Jones is in Michigan on a fishing trip.
Colonel Harley was undecided Friday morning whether he will enter the race.
"I have not made up my mind definitely," he stated. "Some of the committee talked to me, and I told them I would not say whether I would run or wouldn't. I can't say now."

"I shall probably run," declared H.
L. Breckenridge. "I told the committee some days ago that I would allow my name to stand if the thing was shaped up as a business proposition.
I am a tax payer, and believe that we should have a business form of government, and that is my interest in the matter."
M. P. Colt is out of the city, and
A. L. Wilker could not be reached, but it is believed he will enter the race.
JUDGE EXPLAINS ACTION
Reports of dissention among members over the slate selected were discounted by Judge Hughes Friday.
That no women were selected he stated was due to opinion given by prominent women of the city that women should not be included in the first commission, but that they be given recognition by appointment.
That the slate named will meet with opposition, was the opinion of many voters Friday. Rumors of dissatisfaction floated into the board of elections, particularly from voters living in the east side and south sides.

Labor has a slate in the field, which will in a measure oppose the one made up by the committee and there are many independent candidates who will probably take the field.

TIPSTER GAME IN PARIS
PARIS. Jean Bilgot, the 11-year-old rug salesman, who made $20-000 in two days at the Paris races on a capital of $10, has just been arrested for selling race tips.
Bilgot lost most of his winnings on succeeding days, but the publicity given his exploits led thousands of race track goers to believe that he had an unbeatable system. He explained to the police that he could not refuse to hand out "pipe lines" to friendly strangers who approached him and that when his selections

SEWELL FORD
The Famous Author of "Torchy and Shorty McCabe"

Two Deliciously Funny and Irresistibly Human Girl Characters for News Readers

INEZ AND TRILBY MAY

Inez Peterson, "Swede on both sides and a lovely girl," who talks in monosyllables and chews gum incessantly, and Trilby May, "short on looks but long on conversation," go to New York in search of romance and Inez's rich uncle Nels. In the hands of Sewell Ford these characters will find adventure at every turning and will provide for the readers of The News unending entertainment, genuine interest and one uncontrollable laugh after the other.

SEWELL FORD

Is Not Only One of America's Greatest Authors — He is Also One of Our Half-Dozen Greatest Humorists

For ten years his "Torchy and Shorty McCabe" stories were the leading feature of the associated Sunday magazines. Torchy and Shorty McCabe have appeared in fifteen volumes and have had an enormous sale, to which only the sales of O. Henry and Richard Harding Davis are comparable. These famous characters have also had a big success in the moving pictures.

SHORT SHAVINGS

W. H. G. McAdoo said at a recent luncheon:

"We should try to accept defeat gracefully. Defeat accepted with grace, pluck, humor, is as fine a thing as victory.

"I always liked the spirit of the young divine preaching his trial sermon in a fashionable New York church. If the sermon should please, the young man would secure a $12,000 post. Soon from the pulpit, however, he saw that his sermon was not pleasing.

"Half way thru he paused. Then he said in loud, ringing tones: 'The janitor will please open all the windows. It is unhealthy to sleep in a closed room.'

Mrs. Lushie was always trying to reform her husband, who was undoubtedly a hard case. One evening she came home from the pictures and burst excitedly into their sitting room.

"There, John," she said, "I've always told you what would happen to a man who drank! I've just seen Mr. Tippetson staggering into his house with his face all bruised and his clothes simply covered with mud. That's the result of too much liquor!"

John looked casually up from his paper. He wouldn't have been at home except for the fact that this happened on a Thursday, and Friday was pay day.

"As usual, you're wrong, my dear," he replied calmly. "That was the result of too little liquor. If the poor man had only had more, they'd have had to send him home safely in a cab!"

Mrs. F. W. Wise Tells How Cuticura Healed Pimples On Head

"My head was full of pimples and they were even down on my forehead. They itched and burned and I scratched them and large scales formed. My head would not sleep at night, and my hair became lifeless and broke off.

"I tried several remedies without success. I decided to try a free sample of Cuticura Soap and Ointment, and later bought more. When I had used them about six months I was entirely healed." (Signed) Mrs. Floyd W. Wise, R. 1, Shepard, Ohio.

Cuticura Soap daily and Cuticura Ointment occasionally, prevent pimples or eruptions. They are a pleasure to use as is also Cuticura Talcum, a fascinating fragrance for perfuming the skin.

Take Yeast Vitamon Tablets To Put On "Stay There" Flesh

And Increase Your Energy Quickly, Easily and Surely at Small Cost

This or run-down folks will find this simple test well worth trying: First weigh yourself and measure yourself. Next take VITAMON—two tablets with every meal. Then weigh and measure yourself again each week and continue taking VITAMON until you are satisfied with your gain in weight and energy. VITAMON contains highly concentrated yeast-vitamins as well as the two other still more important vitamins (Fat soluble A and Water soluble C) all of which Science says you must have to be strong, well and fully developed. It is now being used by thousands who appreciate its convenience, economy and quick results. By increasing the nourishing power of what you eat, VITAMON supplies just what your body needs to feed the shrunken tissues, strengthen internal organs, clear the skin and renew shattered nerve force without upsetting the stomach or causing gas, pimples, boils and skin eruptions seem to vanish as if by magic under its healthful purifying influence. But, it is not only a question of how much better you look and feel, or what your friends say and think—the scales and tape measure will tell their own story. A two weeks' test will surprise you.

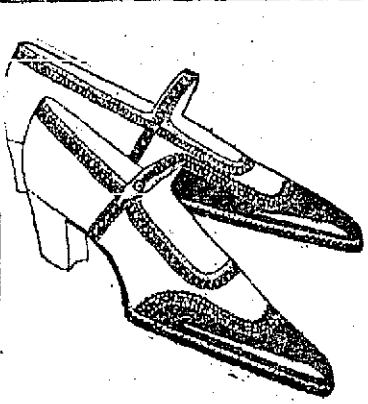

IMPORTANT—While the amazing health-giving value of VITAMON has been clearly and positively demonstrated in cases of lack of energy, nervous troubles, indigestion, constipation, skin eruptions, poor complexion and a generally weakened physical and mental condition, it should not be used by anyone who OBJECTS to having their weight increased to normal. Be sure to remember the name VITAMON—there is nothing else like it. Get it at Red Cross Pharmacy, Hunter's, Mykrantz, or Torpise Drug Store or any other good druggist.—Adv.
